Issued as G.O.No.2265 L.A. dated 28-11-50.

From the Inspector of Mi. Cls. and Local Boards, Roc.12116/50 H3 dated 27-12-50.

The presumption of the Inspector at 'A' on page 2 c.f. is correct - vide notes extracted above. The period of supersession of Sandur Panchayat may be till the 1st Nov. 1951. This is also the date fixed for the reconstitution of panchayats in Pudukkottai and Banganapalle. A draft order is put up Legal may see for scrutiny of the draft notification.

28/12/50 28/XII/50

It will be possible to hold elections to this panchayat only after the publication of the new rolls which may be somewhere about April, 1951. The preliminaries for holding the elections will take some time and so the date of expiry of the period of supersession of the Sandur Panchayat may be fixed as 1-11-51 as in the case of reconstitution of panchayats in the merged areas of Pudukkottai and Banganapalle. This date can be advanced or postponed as occasion may require. 28/12/50

The Sandur Panchayat is deemed to have been superseded panchayat under Sec. 45-A of the M.L.B. Act, 1950, with effect from 1-1-50 under rule 2-a (i) of the Madras Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949. The normal period of supersession, namely one year will expire on 31.12.50. The panchayat is now in charge of a Special Officer. The elections to the panchayat can be held only after the final publication of the new rolls. It is therefore necessary to extend the period of supersession beyond 31.12.50. It is proposed to fix the date of expiry of the period of supersession as 1-11-1951. This date can be advanced or postponed as occasion may require.
